

Hardy's Sister, Lady Copper, May Patrol White House

WASHINGTON, June 23. (By International News Service.)—In the headquarters of the women's bureau of the Metropolitan police is a woman who may some day grace the brilliant social functions of the White House.

Surrounded by a squad of pretty "coppers," nice-looking girls who do police duty in connection with the bureau, is a very distinguished woman. She is Mrs. Carolyn Votaw, one of the lady cops. She is likewise the sister of Senator Warren G. Harding, Republican nominee for president.

She performs her duty as chief aid to the head of the bureau, which is to look after the wayward girls, and she says that she is going to hold her job, president's sister or not.

She is the sort of woman who does what she says. She is a missionary in India before joining the bureau, which she did as soon as it was organized. Many of the ideas in vogue in the bureau originated with her.

Senator Harding is said to share his sister's pride in her work, and to have offered many times to furnish her any amount of money to carry it on.

Mrs. Votaw is equally proud of her brother, and tells of the days when, as a boy, he split rails out in Bloomington, O., and of his school days. On hearing of his nomination she said:

"I wasn't one speck surprised. I think my brother is the best man in the world."

ALL WRONG

WAS HER LIVER

Before Taking Black-Draught,

Missouri Lady Was Troubled

With Constipation, Headache and Bad Taste

in Mouth.

Grandin, Mo.—Mrs. Susa Brooks, of this place, writes: "Some time ago I was in a bad fix, with stomach and liver trouble. I did not feel good at any time. I was very constipated, and had headaches from this condition, and had a continual burning in my stomach, and bad taste in the mouth. Could tell my liver was all wrong."

"I had known of Black-Draught, so decided to try it myself. I began with a large dose or dose, gradually getting to smaller doses. It regulated my bowels, relieved me of the burning in my stomach, cleaned off my liver and made me feel like a new person."

If you get up in the morning feeling as tired as you did when you went to bed—achy, coated tongue, bad taste in mouth, yellow complexion—then your liver has not done its full duty, and your system has absorbed the poisons which your liver should have taken away."

An occasional dose of the famous Black-Draught will help this important organ to function properly."
